ARCHITECTURES NEW TALENTS

A reference book on young and talented Walloon and Brussels architects published by Editions Racine.

This book showcases over 135 projects ? homes, renovations, redevelopments, apartments, lofts, offices, hotels and restaurants ? by 28 architectural design agencies.

Through their expressive qualities and the vision on offer, these designs are set to enable the younger generation of architects to discover a trade that is plied with the aim of seeing an ideal materialise.

A host of inspiring creations that weave the infrastructural framework of an inventive and aesthetic architecture in which man, his sense of welfare and the environment he lives in take centre stage.
