Programme

Competition organised by the 'Fond du Kirchberg' in Luxembourg in 2006. Construction of an administrative building (8,000m²) with a commercial ground floor (1,000 m²). In temporary collaboration with Tatiana Fabeck.

About

Award winning project for a competition organized by the "Fond du Kirchberg" in Luxembourg.

The architectural features are:

- the H shape providing a « piazza » accessible to the public ;
- the simplicity and quality of the materials used: « cleaved » deep anthracite natural stone, woven stainless steel, glass ;
- the office floor of massive aspect (black stone) on a completely glazed base and the strict environmental and energetic criteria (triple glazing, insulation, solar protection).
