About

This project involves a transformation of a property into a house and an apartment.

Located in an area of cultural, historical and aesthetic interest, the construction in stone preserves the strong character of the site while also developing light and sleek architectural lines.

Spaces and furnishings are simple and elegant in order to highlight the existing volumes.

From the lighting design to the selection of lighting fixtures, through to the floor and wall coverings and up to the choice of artists' paintings, everything is designed to respond to the desires and needs of our customers.

Well-being and tranquillity are the hallmarks of the atmosphere reigning in this house bathed in natural light.
