Description

Philippe SAMYN and PARTNERS architects & engineers, founded in 1980, is a limited liability company owned by its partners and led by its two administrators, Ghislain André and Åsa Decorte. With its affiliated companies Ingenieursbureau Jan MEIJER (founded in 1976), FTI (founded in 1985), DAE (founded in 1994) and AirSR (founded in 2003), it is active in all fields of architecture and building engineering. Philippe Samyn's architectural and engineering design approach is based on questioning, which can be summarised as a "why" methodology. The firm approaches projects openly to all sorts of possibilities whilst listening closely to its clients demands.

Its projects are often published in the international specialised press.

The firm's client services include Planning and Programming, Urban Planning, Landscaping and Architectural Design, Interior Design, Building Physics, MEP and Structural Engineering, Project and Construction Management, Cost and Planning Control, Quantity Surveying, Safety and Health Coordination. It relies also on the staff and abilities of its subsidiaries:

- Structural engineering: Ingenieursbureau Jan MEIJER bvba
- MEP engineering: FTI sa
- Fluid Mechanics: AirSR sprl
- Hotel architecture: DAE bvba
