News

LASSA: FINALIST AT ARCHDAILY'S 2018 BUILDING OF THE YEAR AWARDS

Villa Ypsilon designed by LASSA is a finalist at ArchDaily's 2018 Building of the Year Awards in the House category. It has been selected with 5 other projects out of 3000 nominations.

LASSA is an international architecture practice founded in 2009 by Theo Sarantoglou Lalis and Dora Sweijd with offices in London and Brussels. LASSA operates at the intersection between the fields of art, technology and social science.

Vote!

Publication 06/02/18