TRAVELLING EXHIBITION: INTERIORS. NOTES AND FIGURES IN TOULOUSE

The travelling exhibition Interiors. Notes and Figures is in the line of the research elaborated by the curatorial team of the Belgian Pavilion at the 14th Venice Architecture Biennale. It will be presented at the Centre Meridional d'Architecture of Toulouse from March 19th to April 25th 2015. On this occasion, the curatorial team will give a lecture at the Ecole d'Architecture of Toulouse.

Focusing on the home, Interiors. Notes and Figuresrecords and analyzes the domestic landscapes that result from this process oftransformation. The curatorial teamspent five months taking thousands of photographs of home interiors throughoutBelgium. The study attempts to devise a vocabulary and toreveal the attitudes that, beyond pure form, allow us to define a culture thatis specific to these transformations. The photos, notes and figures have been collated in a catalogue, resemblinga manual, that will be published at the opening of the pavilion.

The exhibitiongives to see this archives, which consists of more than 1247 pictures taken in256 visits. Beyond the presentation of those documents, the exhibitiontestifies of the work of analysis made to produce the publication Interiors. Notesand Figures.

Theexhibition places the observation and the interpretation at the heart of thearchitectural design.
